

The Mormon Plan Of Eternal Progression

Information taken from the 1966 edition of Mormon Doctrine by Mormon Apostle Bruce R.

Formless Intelligent Eternal Matter

Pre-Existence, also known as "The First Estate," is the area where all humans exist prior to being born as spirit children of the Mormon god Elohim and his multiple spirit wives. As Elohim and his many goddess wives procreate in heaven, an untold number of spirit babies are born. As they merit the honor, they will be given human bodies where they will be physically born to human parents.

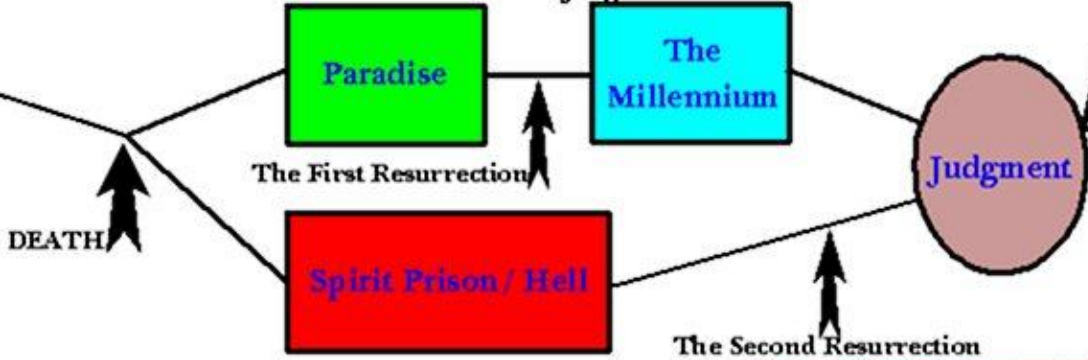

The Spirit World

During a war in heaven, one of Elohim's spirit son's, Lucifer, rebelled and 1/3 of the spirit children rebelled with him. They were cast to earth as demons, with no chance to gain a physical body. They will be later sent to the "Second Death." Those who fought valiantly will be rewarded by being born as white babies, and those who did not fight bravely or remained neutral will be born "cursed with a dark skin."

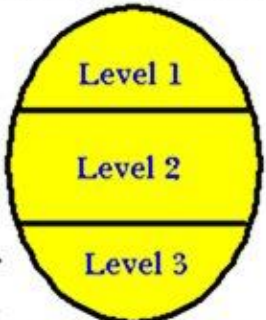

1/3 rebelled and were sent to earth as demons

Earth

At death, humans will then progress to one of two places: Paradise if they are Mormons, and Spirit Prison (or Hell) if they are not Mormons. While in Spirit Prison, Mormon missionaries will be sent from Paradise to Spirit Prison to witness to the Non-Mormons, giving them a second chance to convert. Then will come the First Resurrection of Mormons into the Millennium and Non-Mormons after the Millennium into the judgment.

After the judgment, those who are the wicked of this world (such as Hitler, Stalin, etc...) who have accepted the second chance offered to them in the spirit prison, will live forever in the Telesstial Heaven. Those who were good, kind and honorable - but did not accept Mormonism, will live forever in the Terrestrial Heaven. Those who accepted Mormonism but did not quite live up to Mormon standards will live in The Celestial Heaven. Those who were good Mormons but did not meet all the temple requirements will live in the 2nd level and those Mormons who paid their tithes, married in the temple, and performed all the other temple ordinances will live forever in the 1st level of the Celestial Heaven where they will become gods, marry multiple spirit wives and spend eternity creating endless spirit babies which they will one day use to populate their own planet which they will create.

After the judgment, those who actively opposed Mormonism, as well as the 1/3 who rebelled, will be relegated to the Second Death.
